Start With the End in Mind

GrantWorks philosophy—It's never too soon to start thinking about how you're going to close out your program.

ARPA Expertise

Our cross-functional team of subject matter experts have successfully managed $900M+ in ARPA funds for over 180 clients.

Free Consultation

We provide a thorough review and corrective action plan to give you confidence in your program's compliance and performance.

Avoid Government Clawback

Your funds are obligated and your program is underway, but is it in compliance? ARPA guidance has changed substantially throughout the program's life-cycle. While it has become more flexible, reporting and compliance requirements have grown.

Partner with GrantWorks' team of ARPA experts to access the proven processes, tools, and resources that will ensure your ARPA program is in compliance and a success for your community.

Our cross-functional team works with you to produce an audit-friendly closeout package giving you confidence while dealing with the many compliance requirements around federal funding.
